

The Pittsburgh Teachers Institute
jointly sponsored by
Chatham University, Carnegie Mellon University, and the Pittsburgh Public Schools

Principal's Review of a Fellow's Application for a 2010 Seminar

The Institute requires that a teacher's participation and proposed curriculum unit have direct application in school classrooms. The Institute therefore cannot accept an applicant unless his or her principal verifies that the individual's proposed curriculum unit and intended seminar are consistent with the curricula and academic plans of the school, and that the individual will be assigned in the coming year to teach one or more courses in which it will be possible for him or her to teach the unit. Thank you for your assistance by completing this form.

Applicant _____

1. Is the applicant's proposal consistent with, and significant for, the curricula and academic plans for your school?      a. yes      b. no

Please state why it is or is not.

2. List the courses and/or the grade levels where the proposed unit will be used; if there are none, state "none."

3. Will the applicant be assigned next year one or more of these courses in which to teach the unit? (Circle one)      a. yes      b. no

If you are not certain, comment on the likelihood of such course assignments.

3. Please state any special merits or problems you find with the application.
(Your comments may be continued on the reverse side.)

_____
Signature of Principal reviewing application

_____
Date

(A copy of these comments will be furnished to the applicant.)