

English Language Program

The English Language Program (ELP) at Chatham University is excited to announce SIX International Student Ambassador Scholarships for Vietnamese students to study English in summer 2018. The scholarships will be given to both conditionally admitted students* and students who want to study English at Chatham.

Chatham University is a private university in the beautiful city of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, USA, with over 2,200 students and over 60 undergraduate and graduate programs. In an effort to recognize academic excellence, we award generous scholarships to deserving incoming full-time students. Scholarships for qualified undergraduate international students range from $6,000 to $16,000 to full tuition annually. Qualified students who participate in Scholarship Interview Days may receive up to an additional $3,000 annually.

Dr. Linh Phung, director of English Language and Pathways Programs at Chatham, will be in Vietnam between February 28 and March 8. Applicants to an undergraduate degree program at Chatham may participate in an interview with her during that time.

Students who do not yet meet the English language proficiency requirements (TOEFL 79 or IELTS 6.5) may apply for conditional admission. Conditionally admitted students will study in the English Language Program. After they successfully complete the Advanced level in the English Language Program, they will start their degree program without having to take the TOEFL or IELTS test.*
