THE DILWORTH SOCIETY

The Dilworth Society was established during Chatham's 125th year to acknowledge the generosity of all who have remembered Chatham with a bequest or life income gift. The Society is named for Joseph Dilworth, one of Chatham's founders and Trustees, whose bequest of $10,000 established the building fund for the original Dilworth Hall.

Questions regarding membership in the Dilworth Society may be directed to the Office of Gift Planning at plannedgiving@chatham.edu or 412-365-1252.

ALUMNAE DONORS

July 1, 2010 – June 30, 2011

Chatham College for Women of Chatham University is pleased to list the following names of alumnae who contributed between July 1, 2010 and June 30, 2011. Alumnae Fund totals include all unrestricted contributions and matching gifts. Restricted gifts, which include contributions to endowed or restricted funds, are listed separately. Gifts received after June 30, 2011 will be acknowledged in the 2011-2012 donor report. Every effort has been made to ensure accuracy, but mistakes sometimes occur. If we have misspelled or omitted your name, please accept our most sincere apologies and let us know by contacting the Office of University Advancement at 412-365-2732 or smorrison@chatham.edu.
