This being BLACK HISTORY MONTH, I would like to ask people to celebrate the similarities and not focus on the differences between people of color and not of color.

— Lynn Swann

I was raised to believe that excellence is the best deterrent to racism or sexism.

— Oprah Winfrey
In 2008, the Pittsburgh City Council issued a Proclamation declaring February 15 to March 15 as Women's History Month and boldly stated: “the lives and stories of women of color have gone untold far too often and from this point forward, shall never go unheard again.”

Instead of focusing your spring cleaning solely on your home, why not do some spring cleaning in the area of mental health too? Some areas that might need tidying: Money: Be real, take an honest look at your budget and limit yourself from those expenses that are not needed. Time: Prioritize your time with family, friends, relationships, and your academic work. It pays off to finish your term on a good note. Friends: Healthy relationships are essential to mental health. Be mindful of whom you are spending your precious time with, and how those folks affect your mood. Academics: It is time to be realistic and positive in the hours left to finish your schooling. By doing so, you are taking care of your mental health.

29 National & Global Youth Service Day
- 30 First Day of Maymester classes
In 1978, a joint congressional resolution established Asian/Pacific American Heritage Week. The first 10 days of May were chosen to coincide with two important milestones in Asian/Pacific American history: the arrival in the United States of the first Japanese immigrants (May 7, 1843) and contributions of Chinese workers to the building of the transcontinental railroad, completed May 10, 1869.

In 2012, President Barack Obama issued a Presidential proclamation about Jewish-American Heritage Month.

“Generations of Jewish Americans have brought to bear some of our country’s greatest achievements and forever enriched our national life. As a product of heritage and faith, they have helped open our eyes to injustice, to people in need, and to the simple idea that we might recognize ourselves in the struggles of our fellow men and women.”

We hope you will find this 5-month calendar useful and will post it on your wall. Do refer to it frequently as you plan your days. Please note that this calendar lists a minimal number of activities that will take place throughout the spring term. Listed below are ways to obtain information about upcoming activities:

• Check the calendar on MyChatham on a regular basis to make sure you are not missing out! Throughout the term more programs are added to the line-up so checking MyChatham is a good way to be informed about campus activities
• If you are an undergraduate student, you will receive an e-mail titled CHATHAM HAPPENINGS weekly. Chatham Happenings is sent to you on Thursday every week and it details activities taking place one week in advance.
• If you are a graduate student, you will receive an e-mail titled GRAD NEWS UPDATE. This e-mail is sent to you bi-weekly and it details activities taking place two weeks in advance.

We look forward to seeing you at Chatham activities throughout the spring 2013!
