Please be aware that Non-Degree Seeking Students will not be eligible to apply for Financial Aid. All costs are considered "Out of Pocket."

Courses taken as non-degree are not guaranteed to count towards a degree. At the discretion of the graduate program director, a qualified student can take up to 12 credit hours of graduate courses as a non-degree-seeking student. Students who have been denied admittance into a program cannot register for courses as non-degree-seeking students. Students must earn a passing grade to continue as a non-degree-seeking student (Graduate Courses: B-, Undergraduate Courses: C). Successful completion of 12 hours as a non-degree-seeking student does not imply admittance into the program. In cohort programs, degree seeking students will be given preference for available seats.

I UNDERSTAND THAT: By registering for classes at Chatham University, a student incurs a legal obligation to pay applicable charges for tuition & fees. My signature indicates that I accept financial responsibility for each registered course and agree to pay accordingly. If such action is required, I will be liable for all collection fees, attorney fees, and court costs. Adding or dropping courses may change my on-campus residency, billing and/or financial aid status especially if this action changes my full or part-time status. I am financially liable for any course in which a "W" is recorded. In accordance to the Institutional Refund Policy, I will be charged a percentage of the tuition for the course(s) I drop. (Further information can be found in the Chatham University Course Catalog).
