

Chatham MFA in Creative Writing program

Summer Community of Writers at Eden Hall Campus

Workshops. Craft lectures. Readings. Community.
Part writing retreat, part intensive workshop.
100% Unforgettable.

July 19-29, 2018

The Summer Community of Writers brings together an eclectic mix of low and full-residency MFA students, community members, and faculty for a 10-day experience that features daily workshops, dynamic craft lectures, and faculty and student readings. MFA students earn six course credits with attendance, and community members gain the chance to connect with Pittsburgh's vibrant writing community.

PROGRAM

Ten-Day Student Workshops*

Creative Nonfiction . . . . . Katie Fallon
Fiction . . . . . Derek Green
Poetry . . . . . Phillip Metres

Four-Day Alumni and Community Workshops*

Session A: Food & Travel. . . . Paul Hertneky
July 20-23, 2018

Session B: Flash Fiction. . . . Sherrie Flick
July 25-28, 2018

**All workshops contingent upon enrollment*

LOCALE

Eden Hall Campus is Chatham University's groundbreaking sustainability-focused campus, combining historic buildings with cutting-edge green technology that's earned us a spot on the Princeton Review's Green Honor Roll and Sierra magazine's list of "Cool Schools." But Eden Hall isn't just sustainable: it's beautiful. Nestled in the rolling hills of Gibsonia, just 20 miles north of Pittsburgh, Eden Hall offers plenty of inspiration for nature and place-based writing with hiking trails, gardens, farm-fresh food, and more.

Amenities for those staying at Eden Hall Campus during SCW include:

- The option to camp outdoors or stay in the award-winning sustainable Orchard Hall residence hall
- Optional dining packages at Eden Hall's dining hall, offering organic, locally-sourced food with vegetarian, vegan and some specialized dietary options. A la carte options also available.
- Access to the Eden Hall pool, hiking trails, bowling alley, and scenic grounds

Summer Community of Writers

SAMPLE SCHEDULE

Saturday, July 22

7:30 a.m.	Breakfast in Barazzone Center (EBC) dining hall
9:00 a.m.-noon	Workshop
Noon-1:30 p.m.	Lunch in EBC dining hall
1:30-2:30 p.m.	Craft Lecture: One Writer's Road to Book Publication Ursula Werner, author of The Good at Heart . EBC Media Classroom Ursula Werner is a writer and attorney currently living in Washington D.C. with her family. Born in Germany and raised in South Florida, she spent most of her professional life practicing constitutional law, civil litigation, administrative law, and family law. Throughout her legal career, Ms. Werner continued her creative writing, publishing two books of poetry, In the Silence of the Woodruff (2006) and Rapunzel Revisited (2010). During her talk, Ms. Werner will describe the journey from sentence to book.
2:30-4:00 p.m.	Open for writing and conferences
5:00 p.m.	Dinner service begins in EBC dining hall
6:00-7:30 p.m.	Alumni dessert and cocktail hour
7:30-9:30 p.m.	Faculty Reading: BK Loren and Ursula Werner

TUITION AND FEES

Ten-Day Student Workshops

SCW fulfills English 710 in the MFA course list. Full-residency students must take it once during their program of study, low-residency students must take it twice. Registration for SCW occurs in February of every year.

	Tuition	Optional		Total
		Room	Board
MFA Student Residency	$5,418	$250	$250	$5,918

Four-Day Alumni and Community Workshops

Flexible registration allows you to choose the program that best suits your needs.

	Tuition	Optional		Total
		Room	Board
Session A	$300	$100	$100	$500
Chatham MFA Alumni	$240			$440
Session B	$300	$100	$100	$500
Chatham MFA Alumni	$240			$440
Session A &amp; B	$600	$225	$225	$1,050
Chatham MFA Alumni	$480			$930

LEARN MORE

www.chatham.edu/mfa
412-365-1685
k.kepner@chatham.edu

