The Mihail Stolarevsky Memorial Fund was created at The Pittsburgh Foundation to provide partial camperships for needy students to attend Chatham University Music and Arts Day Camp at Chatham University, Pittsburgh PA. This campership is available for either the six-week or the three-week program. The following criteria will apply:

1. Applicants must want to attend Chatham University Music and Arts Day Camp at Chatham University and show proof of registration.
   a. Applicants must create an account through the day camp’s registration website. Found at www.chatham.edu/daycamp
   b. Applicants are not required to pay $250 deposit until scholarship committee’s decision is made in April.
   c. Please call or email camp director informing her of your camper’s interest in program.
   Contact information:
   Alicia Danenberg
daycamp@chatham.edu or 412-365-1174

2. Applicants must demonstrate financial need.

3. Applicants must take at least one class from the music category (by example: instrumental, talent exploration, vocal, music appreciation, or musical theater) while attending the camp. (for division 4 and 5 campers only)

4. Supplemental Work: (please include with your application)
   - Applicants in grades Pre-K-1 are required to submit a drawing with their application that would demonstrate their potential learning experience at summer camp.
   - Applicants in grades 2-5 are required to submit a brief paragraph and/or picture describing why they want to attend Chatham Day Camp
   - Applicants in grades 6-9 are required to submit an essay (no more than 300 words) describing why they want to attend Chatham Day Camp
Final selection of the scholarship winners will be decided (subject to the approval of the Board of Directors of The Pittsburgh Foundation) by a Scholarship Advisory Committee. The Advisory Committee consists of three to five persons from the community at large. No member of the Advisory Committee, or his or her immediate family, is eligible for scholarship assistance during his or her tenure on the Advisory Committee. Payment will be made to Chatham University of the child.

The Pittsburgh Foundation will notify the parent(s) of the Committee’s decision by May 1st. Grant check will be paid directly to the Chatham University Music and Arts Day Camp. In order to receive this campership award, the balance of the registration fee must be paid in full prior to June 1, 2017.
