CHATHAM UNIVERSITY
Department of Nursing

Clinical Preceptor Criteria

Criteria

Education: Masters Degree in Nursing preferred or BSN with Master’s Degree in the area of specialization related to the clinical experience.

Licensure: Must hold a current and unencumbered RN license in the state of the clinical experience.

Practice Level: At or above the level for which the precepted experience is planned.

Professional Nursing Attributes:
- Positive role model for students
- Positive attitude toward learning
- Professional nursing image in the community and clinical facility where clinical experience will or is occurring
- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- Able to multitask effectively and efficiently
- Flexible
- Perseverance to complete a project

Additional Qualifications:
- Have prior experience as a preceptor for BSN students in the clinical specialty area of the student clinical experience
- Have no conflict of interest and preceptor responsibilities fit work responsibilities
- Be willing to work regularly with clinical course faculty and student in partnership to achieve student learning goals

Cmp 01/06