The Chatham University Parents’ Council is a volunteer organization that promotes goodwill and communication between the University and among parents and families. Members of the Parents’ Council serve as Chatham ambassadors to promote the University mission and enrich the student experience. We are looking for parents who are enthusiastic about Chatham and are willing to commit their time to working with Chatham administration to make the best university for all of our students.

Member Expectations:
• Attend and participate in all Parents’ Council meetings, which will be held a maximum of two times per year. Participation does not have to be on campus. The option of teleconferencing will be made available.
• Contribute an annual gift to Chatham in accordance with one’s capability.
• Provide assistance during the planning and execution of Family and Friends Weekend held each fall.
• Participate, when possible, in Chatham University sponsored events that are open to alumni and the entire Chatham community.
• Provide assistance during Family and Friends fundraising efforts.
• Serve as an advocate for Chatham University and encourage qualified students to apply for admission.
• Make recommendations, when possible, for new Parents’ Council members and administration
• Provide direction for the development of the Parents’ Council at Chatham University.
